

DECISION TREE

Instructions: This form is useful in determining the “Real”, the most important decision to be made. Work from right to left asking yourself “why am I making this decision?” stepping back each time to see if there is a larger, “up-stream” decision that can be made. The form is also useful in listing all of the decisions that need to be made in a project by working left to right.

